

Rosanna Hunter

Rosanna has been volunteering with SGC UK since the charity was founded in 2019. As a professional copywriter, she has supported the development of the charities marketing and communications, including setting up our website, writing digital and print content, and assisting with video production. She is also occasionally to be found spreading the word on one of our stalls at conferences and events.

